EXTENSION LECTURE

The Centre for Women's Studies and Research (CWSR), University of Kashmir, organized an Extension Lecture on 29th October 2026, by Professor Rekha Pande, an eminent academician and distinguished scholar in the field of History and Women's Studies. The lecture was organized as part of the Centre's ongoing commitment to enriching academic discourse and promoting critical engagement with contemporary issues concerning gender equality, feminist thought, and women's empowerment.

During the lecture, Professor Pande shared valuable insights into feminist perspectives, gender equality, and the evolving role of Women's Studies in addressing contemporary social challenges. She emphasized the importance of intersectional approaches, inclusive policymaking, and academic research in advancing women's empowerment and social justice. Drawing from her extensive research and field experience, she encouraged students and scholars to engage critically with issues of gender, culture, history, and development.

The programme witnessed the enthusiastic participation of faculty members, research scholars, and students, who actively interacted with the speaker during the discussion session. The lecture provided an enriching academic platform for intellectual exchange, inspiring participants to deepen their understanding of gender studies and reaffirming CWSR's commitment to promoting excellence in teaching, research, and community engagement.
